

English

- Reading: 'Letter from the Lighthouse' by Emma Carroll
- Reading Comprehension work to develop reading skills including inference, prediction, author's use of language and justifying answers with evidence
- Poetry – wartime poems and poems with a narrative
- A range of writing, including detailed planning and editing, leading up to an historical wartime narrative and an information leaflet.
- Ongoing Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

Maths

- Daily arithmetic, including x-tables
- Multiplication and division
- Calculating and using decimal numbers
- Calculating fractions
- Fractions – decimals – percentage
- Measurement – converting units; mass, volume, area and perimeter
- Geometry – position and direction

Science

Microorganisms

- Describe the useful and harmful effects of different microorganisms.
- Identify the variables in an investigation into harmful microorganisms.
- Draw conclusions based on their results.
- Describe the characteristics of different microorganisms.

RE

Incarnation – Was Jesus the Messiah?

- The Bible's 'big story'.
- Connections between biblical texts.
- How Christians celebrate Christmas
- The idea that Jesus is the Messiah.

Home Front Heroes – World War 2

History

- the outbreak of WW2
- Evacuees – what was it like to be a child in Brittain during the war?
- the Battle of Britain
- the use of RADAR to win the war

PATHS

- Pupil of the Day
- Study & Organisational Skills

Computing

- Internet Safety
- Coding: Scratch

Spanish

La Paga (Pocket Money)

Music

- Listen to and sing popular WW2 songs
- Composing our own WW2 songs

PE

Sportshall – Indoor athletics
REAL P.E. – Creative skills

LOtC

"Digging for Victory"

Winter bed preparation

Design & Technology

- WW2 Cooking
- The invention of RADAR

Art & Design

- Design WW2 propaganda posters
- Create a Blitz Skyline Silhouette

